

Folks,

In our neighbourhood the street lights are intermittent, which causes interference into the AM radio spectrum to the point of making it unusable in the evening. We complained to the power company more than 6 months ago, but they have done nothing. This invasion of the AM spectrum needs to be eliminated. Please inform me which agency is responsible for eliminating this offence.

Thanks